3. Presenter began meeting with students and parents joined Mrs. Kismet in the breakout room for IDAC parent meeting. Mrs. Kismet reviewed thanked parents for joining the meeting and provide a brief overview of the agenda topics for tonight.
 - i. Status of School

Mrs. Kismet highlighted that we are proud to be continue our Mac N Kids program at Maple Creek and happy to have so many parents join the meeting. She highlighted that History Day and Science Fair are also underway. Mrs. Kismet mentioned that in the spirit of the season we have planned another Drive Thru lights Festival similar to last year and scheduled for 12/3. In addition, Mrs. Kismet mentioned that CARES funds have allowed us to hire an additional COVID assistant for the CARES room as well as additional supervision during lunch recess.
 - ii. Bell Schedule Recommendations

Mrs. Kismet revisited the bell schedule change process discussed last time. She indicated that elementary schools across CUSD would start earlier and that we were looking at a start time of 7:55 or possibly 8:00. She shared a sample of what our schedule could look like and invited questions. There were no questions. Mrs. Kismet highlighted that sports would start immediately after school.
 - iii. Dress Code Review Recommendations that are moving forward

Thanked parents for the input. A parent inquired about input gathered, Mrs. Kismet shared that she held a SART and IDAC meeting, as well as met with student leadership to gather input to share with those above her. She referenced so “they” can synthesize that information and a parent asked who “they” was she clarified that upper administration assistant superintendents and associates would review information and make recommednations for the January board meeting. Changes would then take effect in semeseter 2. Some of the possible changes mentioned were short length, leggings, camouflage, and holes/frays.
 - iv. Vaccine for children

Mrs. Kismet explained that there is not current timeline nor plans for this to roll out. She tried to ease parent concres and encouraged them to call her should they have any questions or concerns.
 - v. Community Involvement

Thank you to the Bell family who provided lunch to our entire staff free of charge. We appreciate our families and all that they do for us. Mrs. Kismet thanked our parents for their support throughout the year to include PTC fundraisers.

- vi. Maple Creek Multicultural Week (November 29th - December 4th)
- vii. Polynesian Club Performance will be forthcoming for students with two assemblies. Mac N Kids spooktacular treat sales helped to fund this performance.
