

Reyburn Intermediate

Peer Counseling Class Application

6TH GRADE STUDENT MOVING to 7TH GRADE

Applicant's Name: _____ Elementary School: _____

Student ID #: _____

What is Peer Counseling?

Purpose: Peer Counseling is designed to teach basic counseling skills that enhance positive attitudes toward self and provide techniques that can be used to help other students build their interpersonal skills. In addition, communicate in appropriate ways and be connected to various school programs for assistance. It is part of the Health and Wellness Department of CUSD.

Student Training: Peer mediation, conflict resolution, team building, tutoring skills, nonverbal cues, nonjudgmental/empathetic responses, confidentiality, etc.

Some of Our Activities Include: one on one mediation, group mediation, buddy pairing, tutoring, ongoing weekly meetings with students in need, school events, classroom presentations etc.

As a member of this class you will be required to sign a code of ethics and confidentiality contract that will be strictly enforced. Peer Counseling is a yearlong elective and is open to those students of good character and have above a 2.0 grade point average. YOU MUST HAVE TWO TEACHER/STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS. Please return your completed application to Amy Kilburn at Reyburn Intermediate by February 19, 2021

Please answer the following questions in complete sentences:

1. Why would you like to be a Peer Counselor on the Reyburn Campus and what qualities do you have that will aid you in working with your peers?

2. Why is confidentiality important when being a Peer Counselor and why do you think that is an important element of Peer Counseling?

3. Please include your explanation of what it means to be inclusive rather than exclusive.
